GRAND SUCCESS

PREDICTION IS MADE THAT ALLIES WILL SOON SUE FOR PEACE

GET OUT

Berlin (via Amsterdam) Sept. 1.—Predictions that France, England and Russia could soon sue for peace was made today by a high official of the German government. He declared that the rapid movement of the German army into France has struck terror to the French and British and that the same terror would soon be felt in Russia.

"We have suffered no severe reverses in East Prussia," he said. "On the contrary, we are holding all the positions that we expected to hold at the outset. The main force of our offensive campaign was directed against the French and British. It has been successful."

The French protest to believe that Paris is impregnable. They thought the same about Liege and Namur. Even if Paris does not fall, what will be the result?

That's to be answered. If you bear that the combined British and French forces have been surrounded and forced to surrender, that will be the conclusion of Chapter I.

"Then we shall turn our attention to the Russians. We shall be able to strike with full force at St. Petersburg. Then Moscow will crumble."

GIANTS BUY
O'TOOLE

New York, Sept. 1. The Giants today purchased P. J. O'Toole from the Pittsburgh Pirates. The price was not named. It is absolutely safe to say, however, that the price is considerably less than the $22,500 that the Pirates paid when they bought O'Toole from the Indians in 1912. O'Toole has been with the Indians for years and years and they have had to look in highest price of the Indians, and it is not likely that the Indians will be able to get him back.

You can obtain "Mother's Remedy" at your drug store. It is prepared just as the famous Dr. Foster Holt, Atlanta, Ga.

MICHIGAN FLIER
HAS BAD WRECK

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 1.—The Northland Flier, a fast resort train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, went into a ditch on a curve about four miles north of here early today. It is believed that five persons are fatally injured.

All the ambulances available here have gone to the scene of the accident and as many doctors as could hurriedly be obtained. The train consists of 12 coaches and the wreck is said to have been the result of a washout, all the cars leaving the track.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, Sept. 1.—The French ambassador, J. J. Jusserand, today received this official dispatch from Paris:

"In the Vosges and in Lorraine our troops began an advance again yesterday. At Sasseville on the Meuse a regiment of German infantry was nearly annihilated. On our left wing German progress is made. Russian offensive advance is progressing."

Vienna, Austria, Sept. 1.—In an official statement issued today the fighting along the Austrian-Prussian frontier is referred to as the greatest in the history of the world, as approximately 30,000 men are in active fighting. While the battle has been raging three days, no decisive result has yet been obtained. The statement says forces concentrated near Lublin in Russian-Poland and that the fighting there has become almost a hand-to-hand fight.

Three German Spies
Barely Escape Mob

(By Franklin T. Merrick)

Paris, Sept. 1.—Three German spies arrested within the French lines south of Amiens were mobbed when they were brought to Paris today. The squad of soldiers guarding them had great difficulty in driving back the frenzied crowd of men and women that shouted "death to the spies."

and tried to wrest the prisoners from their captors.

After a struggle of half an hour the spies were finally taken to prison and the mob dispersed.

The death of Pierre Gouger, deputy from the department of the Aisne, was announced today. He was killed in battle. He is the first member of the French parliament to lose his life in the war.

Judge Cuts Tax Levy.

The budget commission, composed of the mayor, the city solicitor and the county auditor, should exercise the utmost care and prudence in the fixing of the tax levy for the coming year. Keeping faith with the people demands that the levy be fixed at the very lowest possible figure, and the demands of the various tax districts should be scanned with an eye solely to eliminating every item that hints at extravagance. The fact that we have a largely increased duplicate this year, due to the operation of the new tax laws, should be used, not to increase expenditures, but to reduce the tax levy.

It is stated that one reason for the maintenance of the city levy at a higher figure than ordinary is the necessity of paying off large overdues inherited from the preceding city administration. We admit the gravity of the overdues proposition that confronted the present city administration, but we fail to see the necessity of burdening the people unnecessarily by attempting to pay off all of this indebtedness in one year. It would, it seems to us, be a much more judicious procedure, to fix the levies so that the overdues will be taken care of and paid off during the next two or three years, the amount each year being so small that it will not be felt by the individual taxpayer.

We have the utmost confidence in the good intentions of the members of the budget commission and we feel that they honestly want to do what is right by the tax payers. What we say is not in the way of criticism, but rather to impress the necessity for increased watchfulness on their part. We hope that when they finally and definitely fix the tax levy they will have agreed upon a figure that will be most pleasing to the citizens of the community.

Those ladies and gentlemen who have so delighted in going abroad and experienced war's discomforts, are now infected with more home pride than the village police judge which is saying a great deal.

The greatest of modern mysteries is that of locating upon which side the infinite Power may be found. Each nation in its war declaration claims that the Lord is with it. The distinction seems to be that God is always on our side and the baseness and the atrocities on the other.

So far not one single Kentucky citizen has offered his services to the foreign belligerents. It is a sad sign that bluffs these gentlemen.

George Fred Williams has more to regret than any other man that the prevailing right ownership did not exist when he was located in Europe.

It would not be a difficult matter to pick out the most unpopular name in Portsmouth right now.

DIAMONDS

It requires years of education and constant practice to determine with any degree of accuracy, the value of diamonds. Their value depends not only on their weight, size, color, shape and brilliancy, but also upon a combination of these qualities. It is practically impossible for the occasional purchaser to acquire this knowledge. This fact is often taken advantage of by unscrupulous dealers in sell imperfect stones with the pretense that they are the highest grade. The diamond purchaser runs no risk in buying from us. Our reputation is an absolute guarantee of safety.

Picking Up Money

Using these columns is pretty much like picking up money on the streets. Walking is small effort, you wear out a little leather, the money you pick up is clear gain, if you can't find the owner.

So it is little effort to telephone your "want" to this paper, your carrier will collect the little cost—only 3¢ counts a word each insertion—and the little ad is altogether likely to get for you what you want.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE PROVING A GRAND SUCCESS

Enrollment Is Fine And Lectures Are Of Great Interest

Two hundred and fifty-two of the county school teachers were officially registered when President Stewart sounded the gavel for the opening of the second day's session of the county teachers' institute at the high school building Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Practically the entire number were seated at the opening of the session, while the remainder straggled in during the next few moments of the session.

Closest attention was given the returns Tuesday morning, and valuable suggestions relative to the improvement of the school room and the playground were offered by the teachers. The latter action was the three principles of the school system is receiving more consideration at this year's institute than ever before, so much good is expected to result as a consequence.

It is fortunate for the teachers that they have the opportunity during the school term. Teachers this year of listening to plays should affect the mannerisms of speech and talks, illustrated by the professional politicians to the kindly illustrations that assist in driving the main interest in everything that pertains to the lives of the pupils and are not burdened with theoretical facts and fancies which are of little help in arriving at the true problems that face the school teacher in the every day routine of teaching both Prof. Harrop and Dr. Curtis. Into instant favor at the Monday sessions, and that condition was promised of continuing throughout the entire week.

After the opening exercises Tuesday morning, President Stewart again introduced Prof. Harrop, who talked for half hour on the subject of "Attention." How to grasp the attention of pupils to hold it for a given period, and then to know just when to release it, were the salient features of his remarks, filled with timely advice and suggestions.

Knowing the limit of physical endurance to which a child should be subjected was one point which Prof. Harrop emphasized, while he showed his audience how that body itself was another powerful key for the proper decorum on the playground. When once the "boy" and the "ruffian" finds himself the hero of his class, teachers should avoid sameness in his methods, best their efforts to classes, but rather the disregard prove monotonous and of no value to the pupils.

Close attention of the mind should be given to a physical relaxation of the body was the ideal state in which the child should be to more easily grasp the efforts of the instigators of the state and nation. Discipline should not be the same as in military circles, principle applies to children.

Another factor in promoting the proper discipline was the manner of suggestion of the teacher. It should be taken to have Teachers should always issue oral commands so arranged as to be heard by all the pupils would that commands obediency rather than suggestion to the children of the teacher. No set program something that they should not be outlined as a criterion to determine if a teacher without which brought the best results.

The personality of the teacher was a potent factor in the success with which he or she held the attention of the class and a method employed successfully by Dr. Curtis, who illustrated that the same principle held good.

Both lecturers were warmly applauded by the large crowd which accorded them the most rapt and respectful attention.

Monday Afternoon

The afternoon session opened by the teachers singing "Juanita" and "Massa's in the Cold Ground." President Stewart then made formal announcement of the death of Harry Beal.

Dr. Curtis' address, also a member of the faculty, was a continuation of his school examinations. The beginning the day before the first lecture of the session was by the teachers of the Dr. Curtis, his theme being "Bent on the absolute necessities of Play." In part he said:

SKETCHED AT THE SCIOTO COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

"It took the human race countless generations to develop baseball and football. The boy does not inherit the knowledge of these games. They must be taught him. Many of the childlike games of today have come down for a thousand years, handed to the younger children by the older ones, the parents possibly never having known the games. Play has almost been eliminated from the lives of many of the children of this country. The playground movement is a world movement. The time is coming soon when every city will have its playground. Every big American city is spending its millions for the children's playground. There should be a playground in every square mile of a city."

"The vacant lots in a city do not come any ways near to filling the bill. Half of the ball games on vacant lots break up in rows. The language used by for unguarded children is bad. The back yard argument doesn't go either. How many furnish the necessary equipment in the back yard for the children's entertainment? Few, if any. The boy of 13 who is limited to the back yard will develop into a sissy. He wants a bigger field and more companions. A boy alone doesn't make a playground. A playground devoted to shooting craps and smoking cigarettes will not tend to the moral uplift of the children of a neighborhood."

The director is the largest factor in the success of the playground. If you want children to grow up healthy and strong, you will have to keep them in the open air. The movement was originally started in Germany to combat tuberculosis. When I was a boy I got most of my strength at the wood pub. But we have no wood pile nowadays. The average city child has little to do but loaf. The housework done by the girls is the worst kind of exercise, in doors and dusty. Girls themes do not make one strong or athletic. It will take a lot of marble playing to make a boy strong.

"You girls would not want the strength of a Hercules. You would rather be graceful than overly strong. Dancing does not make one graceful. One of the most awkward women I know is noted for her grace on the ballroom floor. The peasant class of Europe are very awkward. What grade centralized schools. The state is striving to encourage the payment to teachers of the right kind of salaries. Under the new and nervous to a very short system of giving out creates much time. Out door exercise will prevent the grind of examinations will prevent this condition. Men on the road away with. Present two camping or hunting trips who have to eat their own cooking in a week. New never get dyspepsia. An hour or two a day playing in the open air will do more good. Those preparing to go to the beach in the future must be prepared to advance and grow in the very best means of keeping their work.

"Emphasis is placed on training the boys in good condition is by means of play, the outdoor kind the children are so active. Success in life comes from the ability to make quick, clear and correct decisions. He that hesitates is lost. The best training to make the teacher more easily to watch her students at superintendence should be on their play. Greater Cleveland has all the time. We don't want said that every man should be an office superintendent. I am sure we stand on the threshold of a new era for the schools of Ohio. The rural schools are due for a great uplift."

The class lecture of Monday was a very inspiring one on "Play" by Prof. Harrop. The first of his talk was that there should be fun in every school.

room, and plenty of it. His theory is that more music and less mathematics will make boys better men and women. The professor took a slap at some of the popular music of the day, telling of its deleterious effects on the youth of the country. He advocated clean and classical music as a corrective. The institute, now, said the instructor should have more music to enliven the sessions. At the close of his address he was greeted with great applause.

Previous to adjournment Chairman Stewart announced special music for today, and said there would be singing following all intermissions, hereafter. He also stated that the institute sessions will begin at 8:30 a.m. during the remainder of the week.

New Boston Council Takes Steps to Pave, Other Improvements

The New Boston council met in called session Monday evening at 7:30 with all members present. Solicitor Will Meyer and Village Engineer Sam Harper being present when roll was called. It is the first meeting that all members have been present for sometime. A plan whereby Harrisonville avenue can be paved with very little cost to the village was dwelt on at some length.

If the majority of the property owners along Harrisonville will sign a petition saying that they will stand for fifty per cent of the cost of the paving the county commissioners will unite with the village, the village and county each paying one fourth of the cost.

This is a great money saving plan and will not the village several thousand dollars if the necessary number of names can be secured. Each councilman armed himself with a petition and names of property holders that they thought they could get to sign before leaving the council chamber after the meeting had adjourned. The signed petitions are to be turned over to Clerk Thomas O'Neal before the county commissioners hold another meeting. If the property owners signify their willingness to sign and stand for the per cent of the cost the rest work could be started within three weeks. A number have asked that the petitions be circulated.

Village Engineer Sam Harper's estimate east of the paving is $9,442.50. The village's portion would be $2,385.63. Bonds would be sold to raise the money. An eight inch drain tile across Vine street on Stanton avenue will have to be taken up and changed on account of it being on private property. J. L. Marsh, who has built a fine brick home on Vine street, discovered that the tile was about six inches above the level of his cellar floor when he started to lay the cement floor several days ago. The trouble will be remedied by laying the tile around the dwelling.

Two ordinances were introduced and passed on. The first one was for setting the place of the sidewalk on the south side of Gallia Pike east of Poplar street.

The cement walks are to be two feet from the property line. The other ordinance calls for garbage bins to be placed in an inconveni- ent place where the garbage man can have easy access to them.

Failure to get a car or box of a stated size will mean prosecution. This matter has been hanging fire for the last three council meetings.

The question as to whether or not the people could supply the fire plugs for water was given a thorough threshing out. Water from the plugs is available now and as water is so scarce and hard to get in the village without getting it quite a distance a number of residents asked to tap the fire plugs. They will have to have the consent of the city authorities and will be charged a tax for the use of a stated size will mean prosecution.

Hutches & Hamon who own a lot on Vine street, and East Ridge, have written to the village to lay an eight foot sidewalk in front of their property.

They say the five foot walk now down was done according to orders given by former council. The solicitor was instructed to take up with the owners and order them to lay the additional three feet to the present walk.

Last but not least came the telephone question. The service covered the village is way below what it ought to be and they have to pay twenty-five cents more than the city subscribers.

The franchise, according to the village books, says that the residents of the village are to pay the same rate as Portsmouth subscribers.

Solicitor Meyer was given orders to take the matter up with the telephone company. He will report at the next meeting of the council on his success he had with the matter.

The ended session of council was held in order to do away with the regular meeting of next Monday evening, which is Labor Day.

May Protest The Monday Contest

It was stated Tuesday that President Gableman of the local team would very likely protest Monday's game played at Charleston on the grounds that James J. Corbett is not a member of the impartial staff of the Ohio State League. Neither Manager Pete Childs nor President Read were consulted about the matter. It was another case of President Pennywitt taking the hit by the hands of President Read.

Mr. Gableman stated Monday that he would take up the matter

Believe Ben Evans Was On Olympic

Ben Evans, a Portsmouth dancing artist, and son of a well-known city employee of that name, is thought to have been a passenger aboard the White Star liner Olympic, which was received by his father Tuesday morning. Ben has just completed a trip around the world. He had intended filling a long engagement in London, but the war upset his plans. He writes that all theatres were closing up and actors going to war. English people, he said, were wild over the war. He, himself, had the misfortune to lose his trunk en route from Paris, France, to London. He expected to stop at the Plymouth hotel in New York.

The club officials here figure according to a letter written at the Olympic from London August 22nd, that his inexperience coupled with Aronoff's raw decisions cost the local team the game. An official protest will likely soon be in the hands of President Read.

WILL FINE SPEEDERS ON THE CHILLI PIKE

Squire Thomas Noel who was in the city Tuesday declared his intention of going after autoists who made a practice of racing and speeding along Chillicothe pike.

The squire says the practice must stop or he will know the reason why. He on Sunday was obliged to assess a minimum fine against a local business man who disregarded orders and drove over a section of the newly improved road.
